OBITUARIES

FLEMING-PENCE - Betty Eileen (Hopkins) Fleming-Pence, 74 of Cheswick, died Monday, December 21, 2015 at UPMC-St Margaret Hospital.

She was born January 15, 1941 to Lawrence "Percy" and Margaret "Peg" (Artman) Hopkins.

Betty was a homemaker.

She attended God's Doorway to Christ in Ford City and services in the facility.

Betty loved walking everywhere, spending time with her daughter, granddaughter and great-granddaughter, singing, joking around and shopping. She also loved camping years ago.

She is survived by her daughter, Jaime Sue Fleming (Darrin Johns) of Waynesboro, PA; two granddaughters: Sonjah Fleming of Slatelick and Alivia Fleming (Luke Dzugan) of Ford City; great-granddaughter Lucy Dzugan; adopted sister, Janice Matronics of Connellsville, PA; and older sister, Lois Jean.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents; and husband, Richard Fleming.

Friends will be received from 1-3PM and from 5PM until the time of funeral services at 7PM Saturday, December 26, 2015 at the Snyder-Crissman Funeral Home in Kittanning.

The Reverend Edward Walters will be officiating.

Kittanning Man Accused of Assault, Shooting at Brother

Early yesterday morning, State Police apprehended a man who they said shot at a vehicle after a domestic incident.

Anthony Parrotta, 23, fought with Courtney Crissman, 25, at their North Buffalo Township residence before leaving the residence.

A few hours later, Crissman's brother, Blake Crissman, arranged to meet Parrotta at the Union Baptist Church in North Buffalo Township. Once he arrived in his Jeep Wrangler, however, Parrotta shot three rounds at the vehicle with a large caliber pistol.

Crissman was not injured by gunfire.

Parrotta was taken into custody, and is charged with aggravated assault, carrying the weapon without a license, shooting into an occupied vehicle, simple assault, recklessly endangering another person and criminal mischief.

Parrotta is currently incarcerated in the Armstrong County Jail on $20,000 bond.

PennDOT Centers Closed Friday for Christmas Holiday

Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) announced that all driver license and photo centers, including its full-service center in Harrisburg and center in West Kittanning, will be closed Friday, December 25 for the Christmas holiday.

Photo centers will not offer extended hours on Thursday, December 24, and will close at the same time as driver license centers.

Customers may still obtain a variety of driver and vehicle products and services online through PennDOT's Driver and Vehicle Services website, www.dmv.pa.gov. Operating hours for driver license centers can be found on the website.

Driver and vehicle online services are available 24-hours-a-day, seven-days-a-week and include driver's license, photo ID and vehicle registration renewals; driver-history services; changes of address; driver license and vehicle registration restoration letters; ability to pay driver license or vehicle insurance restoration fee; driver license and photo ID duplicates; and driver exam scheduling.

There are no additional fees for using online services.

Motorists can check conditions on more than 40,000 roadway miles by visiting www.511PA.com.

511PA, which is free and available 24 hours a day, provides traffic delay warnings, weather forecasts, traffic speed information and access to more than 770 traffic cameras.
